

Context

The FIFA World Cup is a global football competition contested by the various football-playing nations of the world. It is contested every four years and is the most prestigious and important trophy in the sport of football.

Content

The World Cups dataset show all information about all the World Cups in the history, while the World Cup Matches dataset shows all the results from the matches contested as part of the cups.

Acknowledgements

This data is courtesy of the FIFA World Cup Archive website.

The Task

Ask yourself 10 analytical questions to be answered via data on Power BI

Hint: try to use key influencers & decomposition tree

Bonus (Nice to have) 😊

Can you predict who will win the next World Cup?

Metadata

Columns - WorldCupMatches	Metadata
Year	The year in which the match was played
Datetime	The Date on which the match was played along with a 24 hour format time
stage	The stage at which the match was played
Stadium	Stadium name where the match was held
City	The city name, where the match was played
Home Team Name	Home team country name
Home Team Goals	Total goals scored by the home team by the end of the match
Away Team Goals	Total goals scored by the away team by the end of the match
Away Team Name	Away team country name
Win conditions	Special win condition (if any)

Columns - WorldCupPlayers		Metadata
RoundID	Unique ID of the round
MatchID	Unique ID of the match
Team Initials	Player's team initials
Coach Name	Name and country of the team coach
Line-up	S=Line-up, N=Substitute
Shirt Number	Shirt number if available
Player Name	Name of the player
Position	C=Captain, GK=Goalkeeper
Event	G=Goal, OG=Own Goal, Y=Yellow Card, R=Red Card, SY = Red Card by second yellow, P=Penalty, MP=Missed Penalty, I =

Columns - WorldCups		Metadata
Year	Year of the worldcup
Country	Country of the worldcup
Winner	Team who won the worldcup
Runners-Up	Team who was the second place
Third	Team who was the third place
Fourth	Team who was the fourth place
GoalsScored	Total goals scored in the worldcup
QualifiedTeams	Total participating teams
MatchesPlayed	Total matches played in the cup
Attendance	Total attendance of the worldcup	